Welcome to the LEXARTS HOP

Dear Art Lover,

Welcome to the LexArts HOP!

For over 20 years, galleries and museums, studio artists, and other artful spaces in downtown Lexington have opened their doors on the third Friday of every other month, offering something original, engaging and highly creative. LexArts' signature event is really collaboration amongst the 40-plus venues you'll find listed in these pages.

The more you look at art, the more comfortable you'll feel about starting or building your own collection. The variety of visual art genres that HOP sites offer means that you can find unique works you'll enjoy for years—in any price range.

While you may never get to every venue in one night, it's fun to try! And if you don't, there'll always be another HOP just around the corner.

This guide will tell you when the sites have regular hours as well.

Our vibrant art scene in Lexington begins with the amazing artists who put their work on view for you. Browse, buy, and enjoy!

ABOUT THE LEXARTS HOP

The LexArts HOP is a self-guided tour of the visual arts in downtown Lexington, KY. Patrons begin at any location and visit as many or as few participating venues as they would like. Each site presents an exciting new exhibit for each HOP and, thanks to the generosity of many, admission is always free.

While the official HOP hours are 5pm - 8pm, closing times may vary and many of the Supporting Art Venues, particularly the participating restaurants and venues, remain open throughout the evening.

Gallery HOP is managed by LexArts as a service to the visual arts community in Lexington.

NEW FOR HOP 2017

Mobile App and GalleryHopLex.com

LexArts is pleased to announce the Gallery Hop mobile app which can be accessed from the Hop website. The web-based app features an interactive map with current exhibit information and GPS locating to direct you to venues nearby.

The Hop website also has an emphasis on improved Hop planning opportunities, more social sharing options and improved user interaction. The website also allows venues to update exhibit information on a more timely basis and include information about exhibits that may happen outside of Hop dates. Take time to experience GalleryHopLex.com for images and information on both past and current exhibits.

Hop Informational Kiosks @ ArtsPlace and Downtown Arts Center

Visit ArtsPlace or the Downtown Arts Center to pick up your official HOP Guide and find other essential information and late-breaking exhibit details. Volunteers for the HOP Kiosk are provided through the Lexington Youth Arts Council.

How to Participate

Many venues seek artists to display throughout the season. If you are an artist and would like to connect to a venue to show your work, you may contact them directly using the information in this guide or call or email LexArts to assist you in finding a venue.

If you have a gallery, studio or place of business and would like to join HOP for the 2018 season contact LexArts at (859) 255-2951 or info@lexarts.org to begin a simple application process.

“Bravo!”

To the many artists, arts organizations, and people we serve who work with energy and enthusiasm to make art and creative development happen.

To the donors for your steadfast support of the arts, which allows your fellow citizens to enjoy, appreciate and participate in the arts.

Together we are making Lexington and Central Kentucky a vibrant, innovative and artful place in which to live, learn, work and play.

When other news outlets have dismissed their arts coverage, the Lexington Herald-Leader and LexGo.com have remained steadfast in our commitment to culture in Central Kentucky and beyond. Whether it's on stage, on screen or in a gallery, studio or small club, our award-winning arts and entertainment team keeps you informed about the issues, helps you plan ahead so you don't miss a performance and brings you the unique, behind-the-scenes stories that make the arts such an important part of life in the Bluegrass.
